Acting on their own observation and viewing the official replays and taking evidence from Ms Moat eStewards were of the opinion that rounding the home turn and entering the home straight Sisco Rascal had eased and turned its head outwards towards Crakenback and shifted up the track and hampered that greyhound and in doing so had failed to pursue the lure with due commitment throughout the event by reason of injury pursuant to GAR 69B(1)(a). Sisco Rascal has been stood down from racing until the completion of a satisfactory trial. Balkin Beast underwent a post-race veterinary examination which revealed the greyhound to have superficial grazes to the left hind leg and muscle soreness to the left tensor fascia muscle and right quadriceps. Balkin Beast has been stood down from racing for a period of 7 days. Stewards spoke to trainer Mr S Rowlands in relation to the race manner of Balkin Beast rounding the first and second turns. Acting on their own observations and viewing the official replays and taking evidence from Mr Rowlands, stewards were of the opinion that Balkin Beast had eased on a number of occasions between the first and second turn and in doing so had failed to pursue the lure with due commitment throughout the event by reason of injury pursuant the GAR 69B(1)(a). Balkin Beast has been stood down from racing until the completion of satisfactory trial.
